LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

MIKE ANZALONE

This President's message focuses on the importance of our industry's safety. I am including my own personal experience on this issue. Our line of work is very dangerous, and we need to take the time to work safely and teach our employees to do the same. Accidents can happen in the blink of an eye, and often they have life altering consequences.

Twenty-one years ago, in March 1998, I went to work with my father on a turbine pump in Washington, Utah. I do not remember the following events, so this account is only what I have been told. I picked my father up in St. George. We went to work, set a pump and turned it on. It immediately didn't sound right, so a city worker turned it off using the panic button. I quickly went to the rig to grab a pipe wrench and came back to adjust the head nut. At this exact time the city worker reset the panic button which resulted in the motor restarting even with the hand-off-auto button in the off position.

A turbine motor accelerates 0 to 1800 RPM's in 0.6 of a second. The wrench, while still attached, swung around and broke my jaw, cut my throat, and hit my shoulder before I fell out of the way. It also broke both of my dad's hands.

It's nothing short of a miracle that an ambulance was there in four minutes. I was quickly transported to the St. George Regional Hospital. It took the doctors eight hours to stabilize me before I was life-flighted to the University of Utah Hospital where I stayed for the next seven days. After three days home, I was again life-flighted back to the University of Utah hospital in Salt Lake City. This time I had to stay for a month.

The accident is the reason I talk the way I do and have a raspy voice, but the chicks dig it!!! My kids say they like it because I can't yell at them very loud. Thankfully, I'm still alive and can talk. Because of this experience I have learned we must always be safe, think ahead, and watch our surroundings.

Looking ahead, we have our upcoming Moab PED and Summer Retreat the first week of June. Thursday we will be golfing in Monticello followed by continuing education classes Friday. There will be a barbecue Friday evening. Saturday we will have our own private ATV tour with a taco lunch prepared on site. You can bring your own ATV, Jeep, or rentals are also available at moabtourcompany.com.

I hope you all make the time to join us. Everyone is welcome, the more the merrier. I finish by wishing you all a busy, safe and prosperous summer!

VFD Enviro-Check® Valves Noiseless

Add "VFD" to end of existing Flomatic part number, works for all applications even non VFD systems.

Patented submersible pump check valve for use on variable flow demand (VFD) systems and applications. Standard check valves will "chatter" and be noisy when the system goes to low flow, eventually causing failure. These unique valves are designed to minimize flow losses and hydraulic shocks in the pumping system. The exclusive patented poppet system ensures that the valve smoothly and automatically adjusts to flow changes and is noiseless at very low flows. Excellent for all applications including non VFD systems.
